

March 23, 2020

To all our Valued Customers,

As an essential business, Mike Bryant Heating & Cooling remains open during this time of need. We are committed to serving you and supporting our community.

We continue to monitor the unforeseen and unprecedented situations worldwide and will take precautions as recommended by the CDC and Health Care Professionals. We have implemented additional sanitization and cleaning protocols in our offices, warehouse and fleet vehicles. We are monitoring the health of every technician and employee. No employee will be allowed to return to work if they are showing signs of illness and are not medically cleared by a physician.

We encourage those who are well to keep their appointments. We will make every effort to reschedule appropriately Customers who are ill or high risk and wish to reschedule. We ask that all customers respect the health and safety of our team and community. Should you be experiencing symptoms, please call our office right away to reschedule.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact our office at 913-441-7807.

Thank you,

Mike Bryant Heating and Cooling